

ABOUT

Designer and the curator of the brand 'ray'silver', Isin Cacur, graduated from TED Ankara College in 1993. She had her master's degree on Landscape Planning, after graduating from the Department of City and Country Planning, Istanbul Technical University. She worked nearly 8 years on her own occupation, as a city planner. She was always interested in art and design so she wanted to educate herself in this field and enrolled in a certificate program on Visual Communication & Graphic Design at Pera Fine Arts. She worked as an art director assistant for one year. Meanwhile she attended the courses in silversmithing and ceramics. She received training on silver jewellery design and metal processing for 3 years. Then she founded her own atelier. Since 2006, she continues to design and produce unique handmade silver jewellery and corporate gifts. Her products are being exposed for sale in DOSIM, stores of Turkish Ministry of Culture and Tourism, Pera Museum Art Shop, Istanbul Museum of Modern Art Store and IKSVA Art Shop.

